Iacobucci HF Aerospace has unveiled CAMBIANO, its brand new seat in collaboration with Pininfarina:
a perfect combination between innovation and craftsmanship

April 7th, 2017 – Ferentino (FR) ITALY. Innovative design, quality commitment, attention to details and comfort. These are just some of the features that distinguish CAMBIANO, the Iacobucci HF Aerospace brand new seat, realized in collaboration with Pininfarina.

Iacobucci HF Aerospace, worldwide leader in manufacturing espresso machines, hi-tech appliances and seats, introduced in Hamburg at Aircraft Interiors Expo – 4-6 April 2017 – its innovative product created specifically for the business class.

It's the first time that the Company approaches the commercial aviation market with a solution that offers unmatched relaxation and an exclusive customer experience.

Iacobucci HF Aerospace, leveraging its unique competence and engineering know-how, created an unparalleled product with an innovative design which allows space saving and comfort for an unforgettable flight. The Company's commitment to quality ensures the highest levels of hospitality on board and a new and fresh design flavour that passengers will appreciate.

Passion and craftsmanship together for an experience that will transform the way of traveling.

"I'm very proud of the positive reaction I experienced from many customers during the show. We are ready to prove we can be the right partner for Airlines for a bespoke seat that makes the difference" comments Lucio Iacobucci, President and CEO of Iacobucci HF Aerospace.

CAMBIANO guarantees maximum comfort, mainly due a better usability of the passenger's space. The seat can stretch in a full flat position with 67" installing pitch and it is equipped with an innovative screen, electrical PC power outlets and 3 USB chargers for each pax.

Designed and developed with a customer-oriented approach, CAMBIANO can be customized to suit Client needs. A sleek modern design and the use of premium materials sourced from the best Italian suppliers, make the seat an exclusive choice. The hand-crafted seat combines a contemporary design with luxurious finishes ensuring the highest level of relaxation on board.

The one leaf meal tray is lightweight and comfortable and during the flight privacy is ensured thanks to the innovative shell's design. In front of the seat, passengers can enjoy a private and convenient drawer, lined with Alcantara, for their personal belongings.

Leveraging an intensive research on all the materials and structure, designed to meet Client and passenger's needs, this seat is a space-saving solution for aircrafts. A unique product for a revolutionary business class.

Iacobucci HF Aerospace and Pininfarina, introducing CAMBIANO, offer to customers, a solution focused on design, elegance and quality creating a new way of living the business class, surrounding passengers and ensuring an unforgettable experience on board.
