

A window on IACOBUCCI HF Group: on line the new website

September 13, 2011 – Ferentino (FR) Italy – New contents, a completely renewed graphic design, sections divided per business areas, higher usability and detailed information: these are only few of the numerous upgrades of the new IACOBUCCI HF Group website. A useful instrument for both clients and shareholders in order to inform about the whole world of the Group, worldwide leader manufacturer of galley inserts and appliances.

The IACOBUCCI HF world opens up with a wide range of new features: news, images, products, press releases and much more just a click through on www.iacobucci.aero.

The home page gives a complete panorama of the whole website: it presents the Group in its integrity giving a precise idea of the business areas (Commercial Aviation, General Aviation and HOME|YACH), of its newly acquired products (MGS), its career opportunities and its strengths (Customer Support). The contents reflect the will to give the user a precise window on all the Group assets: its long history, its complete product gamma from the espresso to the beverage makers, from the trash compactors to the ovens and microwaves to finish with its newly developed seats and HOME|YACHT divisions.

The graphic presentation is accurately in line with the IACOBUCCI HF Group image, ensuring a simple intuitive and contemporaneous style. All the important information are just one click through: from a group overview to the products lists, to the events and news and from the departments contacts to the link to its subsidiary to the location areas and maps.
